

CELEBRATING A.A. PIONEER MARTY MANN

A.A.'s Marty Mann, sponsored by Bill W., nearly died from alcoholism, despite a life of great promise. After achieving sobriety in 1940, she became one of A.A.'s earliest and most influential advocates, helping spread its message across the country.

Her story, WOMEN SUFFER TOO, appears in the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th editions of the Big Book.
